PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

CAUSE

Mr. Maldonado-Correa has been supervised by the District of Puerto Rico since the onset of his supervised release term commencing on October 15, 2010. The following is a synopsis of the defendant's compliance and the request to modify conditions of supervised release by the U.S. probation officer from the District of Puerto Rico.

Mr. Maldonado-Correa was involved in a domestic violence dispute, which did not legally proceed, since the local authorities did not believe the alleged victim, which is his former consensual partner. During the investigation of the incident, the probation officer discovered that Mr. Maldonado-Correa violated the terms of his supervised release by traveling outside of the District of Puerto Rico without authorization from his U.S. probation officer, specifically, from October 29, 2011 to November 2, 2011, to New York. Furthermore, Mr. Maldonado-Correa has gone to the emergency room for alleged anxiety attacks and was prescribed with psychotropic medication, to wit, Clonopin and Bistaril.

Since his conditions of release do not include mental health evaluation and/or treatment, Mr. Maldonado-Correa signed the waiver, Prob. 49 form and has agreed to the modifications. Enclosed is the form for the Court's review. He was also placed in the Comply program (drug testing) as a precautionary measure, since the probation officer received (unverified) information that he was smoking synthetic marijuana. The defendant was given a written reprimand regarding the aforementioned, and he accepted that he did travel to New York to see his daughter, however, denying the use of marijuana.
